

A scenic photograph of a lake with autumn foliage on the shore and mist rising from the water. The trees are in various stages of autumn, with some showing bright red and orange, while others are still green or yellow. The water is calm, reflecting the colors of the trees and the light. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and serene.

THE STATE OF MCBC
SEPTEMBER 2007

A scenic landscape featuring a body of water in the foreground, a misty shoreline, and a dense forest of trees with vibrant autumn foliage in shades of green, yellow, orange, and red. The text is overlaid on the upper portion of the image.

After 34 years of ministry
it is time to ask

“Where do we go from here?”
